

tion of magazines, etc.

It is our custom to put on a Show and Boxer or two if sufficient talent is found. Any soldiers who can box, wrestle, sing, dance, etc. please volunteer to do his part by giving in his name to his sergeant or to any sailor to hand in to the Ship's Chaplain or hand it in personally. Let's all pull together to make this trip home the best yet.

In Flanders' Fields

In Flanders' fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row by row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly,
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the dead. Short days ago,
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie in Flanders' fields.
Take up our quarrel with the foe.

To you from falling hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high;
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, tho poppies grow in Flanders' fields.

—Lieut.-Col., Dr. John McRea.

WELCOME

TO OUR HOMEWARD BOUND BROTHERS
IN ARMS.

On behalf of the officers and crew of the New Hampshire, I extend you our cordial greetings and hearty welcome on board.

The ship is at your service, and though inconveniences may arise, the facilities which we have are eagerly extended to you. Your own suggestions will assist us in adding to your comfort. We are glad to have you with us and to assist you in your home coming.

We, one and all, trust that your homeward bound voyage will be so pleasant that in your memory book you will record your home coming as dating from your arrival on board the New Hampshire rather than the day you reach our native shores.

Ridley McLean,

Captain, U. S. N.,

Commanding.

WHO'S WHO ON BOARD SHIP

In addition to the Ship's regular Naval Personnel, we have Captain C. R. Mann, U. S. A., attached to the Ship as Personnel Officer of the Army. Captain Mann, who succeeds Lieutenant J. G. Arden, U. S. A. known to most of us as "Gen. Pershing," is a welcome addition to our Wardroom.

Mr. John J. Bollinger, K. of C. Secretary, who is making his second trip with us, has won his place among us, and has amply shown his willingness to do all possible to contribute to a happy trip home.

Moving pictures will be shown daily at 2:30 and 7:30 P. M., Port Side Main Deck. Same picture will be shown at both hours. Those who see the afternoon picture will please NOT ATTEND in the evening that room may be given to those who have not seen the picture. A show is put on in the Wardroom daily at 2:30 and 7:30 P. M. to which all officers are invited. When weather permits, the evening show will be held on the Quarter Deck aft for all hands.

There is a Writing Room Starboard Side, Berth Deck which is at your service. Any one will direct you to it. Ink, pens, stationery, etc. are furnished you by the Ship. Books also will be there for distribution. Be sure to indicate your compartment and company in signing for the books. A station forward of No. 10 compartment will probably be maintained for distribu-
