

THE YANKEE BOOMER
VOL. 2 --- NO. 34

May 24, 1945

Passed For Publication
By SHAEF Field Press
Censor.

An abandoned German rail scooter (below) provided an excuse for a bit of horse-play by several Third Army boys, shown thumbing a ride at Rockshaven, Germany.
(U.S. Army Signal Corps Photo)

Namesake of this publication, the motor car at left above has covered thousands of miles of rail for the 759th. The crew, left to right -- Pvt. Murphy F. Raymond, Willets, Cal. (SP); P/Sgt Stephen A. Manorek, Jersey City, N.J. (Erie); T/4 John M. Kyle, Ashville, N.C. (Southern) (Moore)

—O—

Top right is T/5 Bernard K. Bloom of 1st MRS Hq., entertaining a couple of little French orphans at a picnic — or are they entertaining him? (Liddikay)

—O—

GI shop men (center) driving saddle bolt out of smoke arch on a captured German locomotive. (APS Photo)

